ILM/L2AMTL/1008

Introducing the qualification

The ILM Level 2 Award in Mentoring aims to help young learners gain basic mentoring skills and knowledge in a supervised environment. This qualification will aid their personal development and support them in any later career moves into a management position.

This concise Award is made up of two mandatory units. In the first unit, 'Developing effective listening and questioning skills', learners explore the role of an effective mentor and the behaviours/characteristics appropriate for mentoring. They go on to look at the importance of planning and setting outcomes and the practical barriers that may inhibit the achievement of those outcomes. In the final element of this unit learners identify good communication skills for mentoring and examine models for giving/receiving feedback. In the second mandatory unit, 'Undertaking supervised mentoring', candidates plan, undertake and review six, 30 minute mentoring sessions within an organisation they are familiar with.
